HOME DEPARTMENT.

ESTABLISHMENTS.

Delhi, the 10*th May* 1921.

No. 1093.—The Government of India have had under consideration the question of adopting a general policy of exclusion of foreigners from Government appointments and public offices in India. In August last, they addressed the Secretary of State on the subject and they are now pleased to announce the principles and rules which have been approved.

2. The appointment of aliens to "any office or place in the Civil Service of the State" apart from any prohibition under the Act of Settlement is now definitely prohibited in the United Kingdom by section 6 of the Aliens Restriction (Amendment) Act, 1919. Conditions in India justify the provision of special safeguards. At the outbreak of the war there were certain enemy alien subjects in Government employ who, the Government of India have reason to suspect, abused their positions, and although the circumstances of the war provided the Government with a temporary solution of the question by purging the services in India of the enemy alien element, it is important that, with the restoration of peace, measures of a permanent nature should be adopted to put an end to the selection of foreigners to Government appointments and offices. The permanence of friendly or hostile relations cannot be assumed, and a policy of discrimination between Powers is open to objection by reason of the prejudices which it would create. The Government of India have therefore decided, with the approval of the Secretary of State, on a general policy of exclusion of all foreigners, subject to exceptions being made in special cases.

3. The adoption of this policy necessitates a more explicit nationality qualification for admission to the services in India. The law of naturalization, as at present enacted, gives British naturalization to every person born in His Majesty's Dominions (whatever the circumstances may be). The rules at present in force for admission into the Indian Civil Service and the Indian Police Service already provide for the exclusion of non-British subjects, and the Government of India consider that the qualification prescribed in the rules for the Indian Civil Service may suitably be adopted for other services and appointments. The rules provide that a candidate must show—

"(a) That save as hereinafter provided he (the candidate) is a British subject.

"(b) That if he (being a British subject) or his father or his mother was not born within His Majesty's Dominions and allegiance then at the time of his birth his father was a British subject, and that such father still is, or continued to be till his death, a British subject."

The Government of India have examined other alternatives but have come to the conclusion that this qualification will best secure the object in view, and should be generally adopted in the case of all services and appointments (including posts filled by nomination) whether recruited in England or in India.

4. The Government of India desire that it should be clearly understood that the policy of excluding foreigners from Government appointments and public offices will not apply to the rulers or subjects of Indian States. The rules for the Indian Civil Service provide that such persons may be considered eligible for admission to that service in respect of whom the Governor-General in Council has made a declaration under section 96-A of the Government of India Act, but there is no such statutory restriction in other cases. An exception to the general prohibition will also be made in regard to the subjects of French and Portuguese India who are now employed in minor capacities in adjoining British territories as it is not desirable at present to prohibit such employment altogether.

5. The Government of India recognise that it will occasionally be necessary to employ foreigners with special qualifications for special work, for example, in scientific, technical or specialist posts and possibly in a scientific service. But all such appointments should be of rare occurrence and none will be made in England without the sanction of the Secretary of State or in India without the sanction of the Government of India. These restrictions will be applicable in the same way to honorary offices in respect of which local Governments and Administrations will have authority to make exceptions where necessary. In pursuance of this policy steps have already been taken by certain local Governments to render foreigners ineligible to vote at elections or sit as members of public bodies, such as local or district boards, or port and improvement trusts. The Government of India contemplate asking the various university authorities in India to apply the same principle in the election of their Vice-Chancellors and other officers drawing a pay of more than Rs. 200 a month, and approaching the States in India with a view to the adoption by them of a similar policy.

6. The Government of India propose to take up later the question of giving effect to the foregoing orders by incorporating them in the rules framed under section 96-B of the Government of India Act.

Acting Chief Secretary.

Fort St. George, May 7, 1921.

No. 153.—The following resolution of the Government of India is republished :—

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.

CENSUS.

No. 40, Simla, dated the 5th April 1921.

The Census of India was taken on the night of March 18th. The provisional totals for provinces, districts, States and cities are exhibited in Tables A, B and C, appended to this Resolution. The total population of India as thus ascertained is 329,075,132, viz., British Territory 247,138,396 and Indian States 71,936,736, giving an increase of 8,206,218 in British Territory and 713,518 in Indian States. These figures are provisional, but the experience of previous censuses shows that the difference between the population according to the provisional totals and that as finally ascertained does not amount to more than about 1 in 2,500 persons and the figures are therefore sufficiently accurate for practical purposes and can be adopted by local Governments for administrative purposes and for calculation of proportions and percentages based on population.

2. The proportional variations at each of the last two censuses are given in the margin. These ratios differ slightly from those in the statements appended, as allowance has been made in the former for the inclusion of new areas. The areas now dealt with for the first time have an estimated population of 86,145 persons.

Variations per cent since 1901.

—	1901 to 1911.	1911 to 1921.	1911 to 1921.
India	+1·5	+6·5	+1·3
Provinces	+3·8	+8·4	+1·8
States	−6·0	+10·3	+1·6

3. The agricultural conditions of the early and middle years of the decade were not unfavourable to the growth of the population. There was some local scarcity but no widespread famine, while the birth rate and survival rate both stood high in 1913 but declined slightly in the subsequent four years. The war, which gave a notable stimulus to the agriculture, industry and trade of the country, had little direct effect on the population figures. The influenza epidemic of 1918 dominates all other direct influences on the movement of the population during the decade. The epidemic left no part of India unvisited. The death rate was nearly double that of the previous year and the direct loss of life due to the ravages of the disease during a few months in 1918 alone is put at about 7 millions in British India, while the indirect effects are shown in the heavy fall in the birth rate in 1919, the births being less than the deaths in both 1918 and 1919. Apart from the influenza epidemic, the later years of the decade were generally unhealthy. Plague which had been virulent in 1915 in the Northern and Western portions of the country again took a heavy toll in 1917 and 1918. The general failure of the rains of 1918 caused widespread distress over a large part of the country and the mortality from cholera in 1918–19 was exceptionally high. In the last year of the decade a large part of the country had again to face a serious failure of the monsoon. Further analysis of the conditions affecting the movement of the population must be postponed till the Census figures are available in their final form but the figures given in the statements show the extent to which the normal growth of the population has, in the greater part of the country, been set back by the terrible visitation of 1918, and the subsequent unhealthy season.

4. The success of the Census depends on the close co-operation of the large staff of about two million officials and non-officials who take part in the enumeration. The difficulties of the operations have on this occasion been enhanced in certain parts of India by the disinclination of a section of the public to render the assistance that has been demanded of them and the extent to which this attitude may have affected the accuracy of the enumeration will be dealt with in analysing the figures. The Governor General in Council fully recognizes the burden which the Census throws on those who are required to take part in it and desires to acknowledge the services of all those, both official and non-official, and who have by their co-operation and assistance brought the operations to a successful issue.

Rules.

Save as provided in section 57 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, no election held under the Madras Local Boards Act, whether of a member or president of a district board a taluk board or a union board, or a vice-president of a district board or taluk board, shall be called in question except by an election petition presented in accordance with these rules, to the district or subordinate judge having jurisdiction by any candidate or elector against the candidate (hereinafter called the returned candidate) who has been declared by the president of a local board to have been duly elected.

2. The petition shall be presented within fourteen days of the date of the declaration of the result of the election and shall contain a statement, in concise form, of the material facts on which the petitioner relies and the particulars of any corrupt practice which he alleges, and shall, where necessary, be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively. It shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner prescribed for the verification of pleadings in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

3. The petitioner may, if he so desires, in addition to calling in question the election of the returned candidate, claim a declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected; in such case he shall join as respondents to his petition all other candidates who were nominated for the election but had not withdrawn before the polling.

4. (1) At the time of presentation of the petition the petitioner shall deposit with it, as security for the costs of the same, a sum of fifty rupees in cash in the case of union board elections and two hundred rupees in cash in other cases.

(2) If the provisions of sub-rule (1) are not complied with, the district or subordinate judge shall dismiss the petition.

(3) Upon compliance with the provisions of sub-rule (1) the district or subordinate judge shall proceed to inquire into the petition himself or may in the case of union board elections direct any court subordinate to him to hold the inquiry.

6. The inquiring authority shall, as soon as may be, cause a copy of the petition to be served on each respondent and on the president of the local board concerned. Copies shall also be affixed to the notice board of his court and of the local board's office. He may also call on the petitioner to execute a bond in such amount and with such sureties as he may require for the payment of any further costs. At any time within fourteen days after such publication, any other candidate shall be entitled to be joined as a respondent on furnishing similarly such security as may be demanded by the inquiring authority.

8. Every election petition shall be inquired into as nearly as may be, in accordance with the procedure applicable under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, to the trial of suits; provided that it shall only be necessary for the inquiring authority to make a memorandum of the substance of the evidence of any witness examined by him.

7. (1) No election petition shall be withdrawn without the leave of the inquiring authority.

(2) If there are more petitioners than one, no application to withdraw a petition shall be made except with the consent of all the petitioners.

(3) When an application for withdrawal is made, notice thereof fixing a date for the hearing of the application shall be given to all other parties to the petition and shall be published as in rule 5 supra.

(4) No application for withdrawal shall be granted if the inquiring authority is of opinion that such application has been induced by any bargain or consideration which he considers ought not to be allowed.

(5) If the application is granted—

(a) the petitioner shall be ordered to pay the costs of the respondent theretofore incurred or such portion thereof as the inquiring authority may think fit; and

(b) such withdrawal shall be communicated to the president of the local board concerned.

8. An election petition shall abate on the death of a sole petitioner or of the survivor of several petitioners, and such abatement shall be communicated by the inquiring authority to the president of the local board concerned.

9. Where at any inquiry into an election petition any candidate, other than the returned candidate, claims the seat for himself, the returned candidate, or any other party to the proceeding, may give evidence to prove that the election of such candidate would have been void if he had been the returned candidate and a petition had been presented complaining of his election.

10. At an inquiry into an election petition the local board concerned may appoint a legal practitioner or other person to attend and take such part therein as the inquiring authority may allow.

11. If in the opinion of the inquiring authority,

(a) the returned candidate, his agent, or any other person with the connivance of such candidate or agent, has committed, or abetted the commission of, any one of the offences described in section 58 of the Madras Local Boards Act or in chapter IX A of the Indian Penal Code, or

(b) the election of the returned candidate has been procured or induced, or the result of the election has been materially affected, by any of the following corrupt practices:—

(i) any election offence falling under section 58 of the Madras Local Boards Act or under chapter IX-A of the Indian Penal Code when committed by a person who is not a candidate or his agent, or a person acting with the connivance of a candidate or his agent;

(ii) any payment or promise of payment to any person whomsoever on account of the conveyance of any elector to or from any place for the purpose of recording his vote;

(iii) the hiring, employment, borrowing or using for the purposes of the election of any boat, vehicle or animal usually kept for letting on hire or for the conveyance of passengers by hire.

Provided that any elector may hire any boat, vehicle or animal or use any boat, vehicle or animal which is his own property to convey himself to or from the place where the vote is recorded;

(iv) the hiring, using or letting, as a committee-room or for the purpose of any meeting to which electors are admitted, of any building, room or other place where intoxicating liquor is sold to the public;

(c) the result of the election has been materially affected by any irregularity in respect of a nomination paper, or by the improper reception or refusal of a vote, or by any non-compliance with the provisions of the Act or the rules made thereunder, the election of the returned candidate shall be void.

12. (1) At the conclusion of the inquiry the inquiring authority shall declare whether the election of the returned candidate is void under rule 11.

(2) If he declares the election of the returned candidate void, he shall further pass an order either

(a) declaring that any other party to the petition who has under these rules claimed the seat has been duly elected; or

(b) ordering a fresh election.

(3) The order under sub-rules (1) and (2) shall be final.

13. When an election is declared void under rule 12 (1) and a fresh election is ordered under rule 12 (2) (b), the seat of the returned candidate shall be deemed to be vacant from the date of the order and the president of the local board concerned shall forthwith take the necessary steps for holding such fresh election.

No. 351.—In exercise of the powers conferred on them by sections 199 (2) (b) and 19 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, the Local Government are pleased to make the following rules for the election of presidents and vice-presidents of local boards.

RULES FOR THE ELECTION OF PRESIDENTS AND VICE-PRESIDENTS OF LOCAL BOARDS.

I. A candidate for the office of president or vice-president must be proposed by one member and seconded by another. The names of all the candidates proposed and seconded shall be read out by the president or the presiding member.

II. (1) If there is only one duly nominated candidate, there shall be no ballot and he shall be deemed to have been elected.

(2) If there are two or more candidates, the votes of the members present at the meeting shall be taken.

III. Every member wishing to vote shall be supplied with a voting paper on which the names of all the members of the local board who are not salaried officers of Government other than village headmen—shall be printed or typed in the following form:—

	Names.	Vote.

Before the voting paper is handed over to the voter the president or presiding member shall score out therefrom the names of members of the local board who have not been duly proposed and seconded as candidates. The voter shall then proceed to the place set apart for the purpose and there place a mark (×) against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. He shall then fold up the slip so as to conceal his vote and deposit the same in a ballot-box placed in the view of the president or the presiding member and so constructed that the paper may be placed therein but not extracted therefrom without the box being opened. The president or the presiding member shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of the members and declare the result of the election in accordance with the following instructions:—

(i) If there are only two candidates, the one who secures the larger number of votes shall be considered to have been elected.

(ii) If there are more than two candidates, the one who obtains the fewest votes shall be eliminated and the votes taken again. If there is an equality of votes among all the candidates, or if two or more candidates lowest on the list have obtained an equal number of votes, the president or the presiding member shall ascertain by casting lots in the presence of the members which of them shall be eliminated. The elimination shall be repeated until two candidates only are left, when votes shall be taken for the last time and the candidate who secures the larger number of votes shall be considered to have been elected. In the event of there being an equality of votes at the final stage between the two remaining candidates, the president or the presiding member shall ascertain by casting lots in the presence of the members which of the two shall be considered to have been elected.

IV. No candidate whose name has been proposed and seconded shall take part in a ballot but a candidate may withdraw at any stage, and after so withdrawing he may take part in any ballot. Similarly a candidate who has been eliminated at any stage under rule III (ii) may take part in any ballot at subsequent stages.

V. Any voting paper which contains the signature of any of the voting members or on which the mark (×) is placed against more than one name shall be invalid.

VI. Immediately after the meeting the president or presiding member shall forward the name of the person elected as president or vice-president of a district or taluk board to the Superintendent, Government Press, for publication in the Fort St. George Gazette. The name of a person elected as president of a union board under these rules shall be published by a notification affixed to the notice-board of the office of the union board concerned.

VII. (1) The president or presiding member shall then seal up the ballot papers, whether counted or rejected, and note on each packet the number of papers it contains and the election to which it relates.

(2) These packets shall not be opened and their contents shall not be inspected or produced except under the orders of a competent court.

(3) The packets shall be retained in safe custody in the office of the local board concerned for a year and shall then, unless otherwise directed by the orders of a competent court be destroyed.

1918	21	ഇന്ത്യൻ ലൈസൻസ് ഭേദഗതി (വിദേശ മദ്യനിയമം) ആക്ട് ഭേദഗതിയായ 1918 ലെ ആക്ട്.	ഇല്ലാതായി.
1918	7	ഇന്ത്യൻ സൈനിക നിയമം ആക്ട് ഭേദഗതിയായ 1918 ലെ ആക്ട്.	ഇല്ലാതായി.

കുറിപ്പ്—(15 ാം വകുപ്പിലെ കണ്ടുനോക്കുക) ഒരു തിയ്യതി എന്നതുകൊണ്ട് മദ്യനിരോധനനിയമം കൊണ്ടോ ഭേദഗതികൊണ്ടോ നിശ്ചയിക്കപ്പെടുന്ന ദിവസം അർത്ഥമാക്കുന്നു. ഈ തിയ്യതിയിൽ തന്നെയോ അതിനു മുമ്പിൽ വിജ്ഞാപനം ചെയ്യുന്നു.
